MHJCA is a nonprofit, though not 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, organization and the programs are provided at no charge for our services as long as you are a public library or other nonprofit organization providing cultural or educational programs. We may, however, ask for a reimbursement of supplies including gas mileage for some programs due to high cost materials as well as extra labor may be required to supply some exclusive materials from outside our living area. Please be advised, this application does not guarantee the acceptance of our program which will entirely depend upon our volunteer's availability. The terms and conditions are subject to change without advance notice.
